How to save money on wildlife control services!

Your hard earned money should be spent on techniques that work and fully resolve your wildlife problem. We wanted you to have the “inside scoop” about our company and the pitfalls to avoid from other companies.

How do you save money by hiring A All Animal Control to solve your wildlife problem?

- By having your home, business or property thoroughly inspected. An intensive inspection will help discover damage, infestations and contaminants animals leave behind. Once these problems are discovered, quick action can be taken to make sure they are resolved before they get out of control and cost more money. Our 62-Point Inspection process leads the industry in thoroughness!
- Use of the best equipment on the market to control the source of the wildlife infestation. Sub-standard cages and equipment often fail and will result in more money paid to control the problem. Only top of the line equipment is in use by our Wildlife Professionals.
- Hiring Certified Wildlife Professionals will save you money by having properly trained technicians quickly troubleshoot the problem and begin an immediate resolution. All of our Wildlife Professionals are included in our certification process from day one with our company. In fact, they receive an initial week long certification to become qualified to provide Wildlife Control Services. They are also required to attend monthly conference calls and annual conventions for ongoing education and training.
- Properly repairing the structure. An improper repair of the structure will result in a return infestation of the problem thus costing you once again to remove the animals and repair the area. Your home will be properly repaired by either our Wildlife Professionals or through our network of National Repair Experts.
- Hiring licensed and insured Wildlife Professionals will prevent you from experiencing a loss if your property is damaged in the process by the Wildlife Professional. There are many individuals who do not carry any insurance in this industry and you want to protect your home and property from losses from uninsured individuals. All of our Wildlife Professionals are fully licensed and insured to protect you and your property.

- A warranty provided for the repair of the home or business. A warranty will protect you in case an animal infestation recurs. We have warranties ranging from 1 year to a lifetime warranty for your complete protection.
- Having a guarantee for the company's services. We offer The Most Gentle and Complete Wildlife Service or it's FREE! Nobody else can promise you this!
